

DR. AKSHAY NADKARNI

Dr Akshay Nadkarni, is a Practising Cancer Surgeon doing laparoscopy as a hobby and as evolved as the youngest teacher in Gynec Endoscopy over the last 3 years trained over 250 students across India and middle east countries known for giving HANDS ON LAP Hysterectomy on his cases in Vapi- Gujarat. He has done his schooling from a small village in Killa Pardi Gujarat, 12th std topper with highest marks in CBSE with President's Medal, Final MBBS Topper with gold medal in Gynecology, Best Outgoing student of MANIPAL university for Post Graduation in MS general Surgery. Published over 8 international papers and awards in PG, post PG training in cancer from Tata memorial Hospital and worked with the great Dr Shailesh Puntambekar for laparoscopy. He's into private practise from 2012 as the Only rural Onco Surgeon between MUMBAI and surat catering to the rural India along with training academy for gynec endoscopy. Has got many awards including youth icon and bharat jyoti award for youngest surgeon for efforts for developing cancer awareness in rural india since 2012. Belongs to a family of gynaecologists and IVF specialists and so has been doing and evolving in Gynec endoscopy as well. Done over 4500 laparoscopic cases over 7 years and 1300 plus Onco surgeries and doing all pelvic cancers laparoscopically in a small place in affordable prices. Has developed his replicable model of the 3 port technique of TLH standing on the right side and has trained many gynecs who also have developed the same technique.